

Youth, Rights & Justice

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Youth, Rights & Justice has received funding to hire an additional staff education attorney for the next 2 years who will focus on YRJ's SchoolWorks program. YRJ is widely recognized as a leader in juvenile law in Oregon. Our mission at Youth, Rights & Justice is to advance the rights of children, parents, and families through advocacy in the courts, schools, legislature, and community.

YRJ provides court-appointed representation of children and parents involved in the child welfare and juvenile justice systems—in both the trial and appellate courts. We also represent individual children in school-related special education and discipline matters. On a larger scale, we work to improve the systems impacting our clients through legislative and administrative advocacy, class action litigation, publications, and training other lawyers and community partners.

The children we serve are racially and culturally diverse and from low-income families. Many are experiencing abuse and neglect, living with disabilities, and recovering from trauma. The parents we serve include those who are former foster children and are struggling to keep their families together.

We are committed to achieving a diverse workforce. Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to status as a protected veteran or a qualified individual with a disability, or other protected status, such as race, religion, color, national origin, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status, or age.

YRJ's benefits include medical, dental, vision, AD&D, STD, LTD, and life insurance. The organization has a 401(k) Retirement plan and offers paid vacation, 11 paid holidays including Juneteenth and paid sick time.
